FOR HOW LONG WILL WE PROCESS YOUR DATA?

To the extent that your data are processed based on consent, they will be processed until the consent is withdrawn. The period of data processing may be extended until the limitation period for claims expires. After withdrawal of consent or after the end of the last of these periods, your personal data will be deleted or anonymized.

WHAT RIGHTS DO YOU HAVE IN CONNECTION WITH OUR PROCESSING OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

In connection with the processing of your personal data, you may exercise the following rights: access to your data, rectification (correction) of the data, deletion of the data, restriction of processing, and data portability.

You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority responsible for ensuring compliance with data protection regulations. To the extent that the data are processed based on your consent, you have the right to withdraw your consent to the processing of personal data at any time. Withdrawal of consent does not affect the lawfulness of processing carried out on the basis of that consent before its withdrawal.

Independently of the above rights, you may object to the processing of data carried out on the basis of the legitimate interest of the data controller or the public interest. Your personal data will cease to be processed for these purposes unless it is demonstrated that there are compelling legitimate grounds for processing that override your interests, rights, and freedoms, or that the data are necessary for the establishment, exercise, or defense of legal claims.

To ensure that you are entitled to exercise these rights, we may ask you to provide additional information that allows us to verify your identity.

IS PROVIDING THE DATA MANDATORY?

Providing the data is entirely voluntary; however, failure to provide them will make it impossible to use them for the purpose of conducting the test.

WHAT ELSE SHOULD YOU KNOW?

We will not transfer your data outside the EEA. We do not make decisions based on automated data processing, i.e., automated analysis of data.
